

Cre@digidol...

Digital and Social Media Awareness Training for the Arts Sector in Gwynedd Council, Cyfle and the Gwynedd Arts Forum are working in partnership to provide a bespoke social and digital media training programme for artists and creative companies in Gwynedd. If you are keen to learn more about this area of work this is a fantastic opportunity to be introduced to the many possibilities this media can offer arts practitioners to promote, communicate and create.

- [1] Half Day Conference: Introduction to Social and Digital Media
21 February, 2012. 10am - 1pm. £20
- [2] Two Day Course: Film Shooting, Editing and Creating a Simple Website
15 & 16 March, 2012. 9:30am - 5pm. £40
- [3] One Day Course: App Development for iPlayer
20 March, 2012. 9:30am - 5pm. £20

If you book on all three we can offer a reduced rate of £70 for the package*

Location: All sessions will be held at Cyfle's Digital Studio, Galeri, Doc Fictoria, Caernarfon, Gwynedd.

For more details: ☎ 01286 679721 / 07789 032517

✉ AnnesSion@gwynedd.gov.uk www.creativegwynedd.com

Booking Slip:

Name: _____

Company: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Mobile: _____

Special Requirements: _____

Dietary Requirements: _____

Please tick appropriate boxes to book on the courses you wish to attend:

[1]

[2]

[3]

Please return the slip and cheque made payable to the 'Gwynedd Arts Forum' to:

Community Arts Unit, Caernarfon Archive, Gwynedd Council, Shire Hall St, Caernarfon. LL55 1SH

Priority will be given to Gwynedd residents.*